

Celorio.

Wenther Indications: Fair, Warmer The Average Circulation of THE WORLD for the Month of March, 1894, 460,929 Per Day.

A Gain of 57,596 Per Day in One Year. A Gain of 148, 59 Per Day in Three Years.

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, APRIL 7, 1894.

A WORLD REPORTER, DISGUISED AS A TRAMP, JOINS THE RANKS, AND RELATES HIS EXPERIENCES IN THE Sunday World To-Morrow

2 O'CLOCK.

Hanson Says He Was Then Not Permitted to Vote.

Lexow Committee Takes Up Alleged Police Interference.

Get Some Papers.

ly to go on the witness stand when enate Investigating Committee re-Sutherland wanted to inspect, so the waiting for the return of the mes-

e members of the Committee present Chairman Lexow and Senators Sax-Cantor and Bradley. e first witness was Hennan Hanson

e at 38 Division street, on last elecgoing behind the guard rail, and ited several instances where illegal ers were brought in and challenged, the police present refused to make le said he had never made any com-tint at Police Headquarters. Freund, of 248 Stanton street,

"I didn't want to be accessed, so I went towards the door. Just as I was going out the policeman gave me access telling me to move faster.

"I went to the police station and complained, and the sergeant asked me what leket I voted. I was afraid they might ock me up, so I told him I voted for Fammany Hall."

"Did you intend to vote for Tammany Hall."

leerwards had great difficulty in getg a license as a truckman.
Valter C. Smith, another Republican techer, was then called, and a wrangle burred between the counse, of the mmittee and Mr. Nicoli over the adssion in evidence of his certificate.
Mr. Butherland said Mr. Nicoli's obti was simply to take up the time of p Committee. Senator Saxton resentvery emphatically a statement made Mr. Nicoli that in bringing in the partisan Police bill, the Committee d virtually made its report before the stimony was all in. The certificate is admitted.
Mr. Smith, who was appointed to the lin the Third Assembly District, lid he had the usual trouble with the lice at the polling place. He was setted from behind the guard-rail, and though he went to see Supt. Byrnes dd the captain of the precinct, he obined no satisfaction.

and the captain of the precinct, he can almost no satisfaction.

He saw any number of repeaters, but the did not object because he was afraid of the Tammany heelers present. The soliceman in the polling place made no titempt to stop any of these illegal practises, although Smith said they here apparent to anyone in the room.

DID IT WITH THEIR HATCHETS

G. W., Were Locked Up.

Samuel Ehernberg and William Moran two small boys, were held by Justice Goetting in the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsburg, to-day on a charge of malicious mischief.

A fine tree which stands in front of William Ward's residence, at 590

William Ward's residence, at 590 Myrtic avenue, was cut with a hatchet on Tuesday night. Detective Sergt. Brady, of the Vernon avenue station, had reason to suspect the boys, and Brady, of the Vernon avenue stand had reason to suspect the boys, and taked them if they cut the tree.

With the story of the immortal George before them, although it was not a therry tree, they confessed, and implicated their hatchets.

Brady did not fold them to his arms, and in miletily swore out a warrant and but quietly swore out a scked the youngsters up.

FORTUNE WITH THIS BABY.

Commodore Morgan Gets $750,000

with His New Helr. Commodore E. D. Morgan, of the New fork Yacht Club, is kept busy receiving the congratulations of his many friends apon the birth of another son and helf. The happy event occurred Weinesday. The will of the late Gov. E. D. Morgan provided that his son, the Commodore. was to receive the income on $3,000,000 left in trust.

It was further stipulated that when the Commodore became the father of three living children he was to be paid 155,000, or 1250,000 for each child.

Commodore Morgan has within the last five years become the proud father of one girl and two boys, this last child bringing him a fortune.

N COXEY'S ARMY.

by Desperate Criminals.

Still at Large.

GREENSBURG, Pa., April 7.—A desperately executed jail delivery was successful here last night, and eight criminals escaped. When Jailer McCready, with his assistant, William McSheary, entered the cell corridor for the purpose of locking the prisoners up for the night. Peter Madden, one of the most vicious prisoners confined in the jail, jumped from his cell door and struck McCready across the back of he head with a piece of lead pipe.

The jailer went down as if he had been shot, and lay unconscious on the floor across his skull. McSheary made a brave stand, but was soon a victim of Madden's leaden billy. While both men companions of Madden, who were in the plot, jumped on them and beat them brutally. The prisoners rifled the pockets of McCready, securing the keys ets of McCready, securing the keys necessary for their escape, and rushed out of the jail.

An alarm was given and within an aout four of the escaped convicts were recaptured, but four others, the worst in the gang, are still at liberty. They are: Peter Madden and Michael Corgan, express robbers; young Kelly and Harry Owen, robbers.

A large posse of officers is in pursuit. The wounds of the jailer and his assistant, while serious, are not considered fatal.

GEORGE M. DAVIS MISSING.

Has Not Been Seen Since.

The news from Montreal this morning that George M. Davis, an employee of id he had attempted to vote at 140 the Worthington Steam Pump Company, orsyth street last election day, and of 145 Broadway, this city, has mysterist told that somebody else had voted only disappeared from Montreal on When he protested and March 27, whither he had been sent by red out of the place by the police- may have met with faul play is well an altercation with John and James silicemay have met with foul play is well grounded.

Davis had been with the Pump Commay have met with foul play is well an alteraction with John and James a limited for his bone in this city.

A few days ago a letter came to the Worthington Company from Mrs. Davis be wanted news of her husband, she said. A brother of Davis in Montreal sent word that Davis had started home,
Mrs. Davis believes that her husband, has met with foul play.

Mrs. Davis believes that her husband, has met with foul play.

Mrs. Davis ladd a good man and true,
Mrs. Davis was a good man and true,
Mrs. Davis and the was read to be to one the head with a sturn white caught be during and industrious man. Early in March the services would be nesded to protect valuable shipping and adjacent property.

The Brans claim they caught Dawson was a briglar the elder of the forward end, while five streams from the for one."

"How did you know he wanted you to vote the Democratic ticket?"
"He offered me a Tammany paster."
Mr. Nicoli wanted to know what names were on the paster, and the witness began with Timothy D. Sullivan.
"That's enough." said Mr. Nicoli.
Truckman Joseph Gano, of 50 Ninth avenue, who signed the petition for Bahan's nomination in the Ninth District. said he was approached by a policeman, whom he did not know, who told him it would be better for him to take his name off the petition and sign that of MoDermott. He refused to do so, and afterwards had great difficulty in get-ting at leense as a truckman.

Supplied the wanted you to that is all."

DEATH CHANGED HER MIND.

Loss of Her Daughter Made Mrs.

Fitzgerald Relent.

In Essex Market Court to-day Justice Koch signed the discharge of John Fitzgerald, whom he sentenced to the island on Dec. 9 last from Jefferson Market Court. He did so at the request of Mrs. Margaret Fitzgerald, of 16 Commerce street, the wife of the defendant, who made the charge against her husband.

"Your Honor," said the wanted you to to the sain."

Margaret Flizgerald, of 16 Commerce street, the wife of the defendant, who made the charge against her husband.

"Your Honor," said the woman, as the tears rolled down her face, "I have come here to ask for my husband's discharge."

"What?" exclaimed the Court. "Why, I remember you were very bitter when you appeared against your husband. You said that I could not punish him enough. What has induced ou to change your mind?"

"A death," she answered. "My child, a girl of sixteen years, died on Thursday last, and I want my husband discharged so that he can go to the funeral to-morrow."

HURRICANES AND ICEBERGS.

Incoming Vessels Continue to Make Reports of Stormy Voyages.

The British steamship Britannic, Capt Smith, from Liverpool, which arrived to-day, met with the west-southwest to vest-northwest gales that incoming steamers for several days past have been reporting.
On April 1, in latitude 48.26, longi-

On April 1. In latitude 48.26, longitude 32.31, the Britannic encountered unusually high seas. They boarded the vessel and carried away one lifebout and two other boats from their chocks. The British steamer Italia, Capt. Craig. from Leghorn, which also arrived today, had a stormy passage. From March 22 to 26 the gale blew with hurricane force and a tremendous high sea was running. The vessel had to put into Hallfax for coal. On March 28, latitude 44.22, longitude 49.19, she passed a large leeberg.

BEN KING FOUND DEAD.

Michigan Poet and Humorist a Victim of Heart Disease.

(fly Associated Press.)
BOWLING GREEN, Ky., April 7.-Hen King, the Michigan poet and humor-ist, who appeared at the opera-house here last night with Opic Read, was found dead in bed at his room in the Morehead House this morning.

He had evidently died from heart disease. His body will be sent to his home at St. Joseph, Mich., where he has a wife and two children.

Merchant Tallors' Societs of the City New York, has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: E. Twyeffert, President: An-drew J. Countek, Vice-President: I. S. Lavid-on, Second Vice-President: E. N. Doil: Sec-relaty: B. H. Merwin, Treasurer.

Another Cable Car Victim. Muchael Cavanaugh, six years old, of 513 Thir

HOTEL VIANO, 39 E. 18th et.; new management; cest 50c. table d'hote dinner; with wine, 60c.

EIGHT PRISONERS BREAK JAIL. DYNAMITE IS FOUND. FIRE NEAR THE OIL.

Two Keepers Knocked Senseless One Hundred Rounds Discovered Steamship City of Columbia Nar-Under Mr. Gillis's Stoop.

There by the Thief.

Blasting Is Being Done.

Two fifty-pound boxes of dynamite

this morning. of the East One Hundred and Sixty- from West Point and Newport news, first street station, who was near by. explosive to the station-house.

son to do him harm. stolen by some one, who hid it until about 4 o'clock, but it was not until

STRUCK WITH A RIFLE.

Dawson's Skull Fractured in a Row with the Ryans.

James Dawson, forty-one years old,

BEAT HIS MOTHER-IN-LAW.

itrefdl Is Also Charged with An noying His Dying Wife.

Philip Streidl, foreman of a factory at 22 Union avenue, was held in the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsburg, to-day on rowly Escapes Destruction.

Four Recaptured and the Others May Have Been Stolen and Left Flames Discovered Eating a Way Toward Cotton-seed Oil Casks.

> Special Call Brings Fire Bonts and Many Engines.

The Old Dominion steamship, City of cartridges, such as are used in blasting Columbia, had a narrow escape from rocks, were found by William Gill, of 576 destruction from a fire that broke out She arrived at her pier, at the foot notified Policeman William Thompson, with a valuable cargo of merchandise Mr. Gill knows of no one who has rea- and fortunately had the place clear

A strong odor of gas was noticeable such time as he could dispose of it for nearly two hours afterwards that smoke money.

A fifty-pound box is worth $10.

Policeman Thompson found that Contractor McCormick, who is disging a sewer in Robbins avenue, is using dyna-sells. They turned in an alarm from the that Dawson was a burglar the elder of the Lyons brothers seized a rifle from his bedroom and beat Dawson over the head with its butt.

The Lyons boys live with their mother in the flat. They said they were not acquainted with Dawson, although he lives around the corner from their home.

BEAT HIS MOTHER-IN-LAW.

DIPHTHERIA IN A BOOK.

(lly Associated Press.)
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 7.—Dr.

UNDER THE DOCKS.

A City Department Which Makes No Public Report.

SUSPICIOUS FIRES, THESE. IS THE SPY LE CARON DEAD? COXEY MEN DISCONSOLATE.

233 Houston Street.

Work at 136 Essex Street.

The Fire Marshal is determined to children, were not at home at the time. The Gazette adds that rumor has it that Stanislaus Sametzky, his wife and officers' protection. three children, were at supper in their. It is added that this disappearance of the start to-day with any degree of satapartments adjoining those of Schmitt the British say is due to the fact that is faction.

Schmidts Were Not at Home at Story in London That He Was Rheumatism and Hard Colds

Cleakmaker Barrowitz Had No And That He Is Being Smuggled Rain and Gloom for the Long March

WOMAN FOUND DEAD.

Her Husband Unconscious and Suffering from Alcoholism.

Both Newspaper Writers Who Had Taken to Drink.

Bruises on Mrs. Clancy's Body-an Autopsy Will Be Made.

Mrs. Mollie Clancy, thirty-one years old ,was found dead last night at her home, 171 East Seventy-seventh street. The police regard the sircumstances surrounding her death as suspicious. At 1 o'clock this morning her husband, James J. Clancy, about thirty-seven terian Hospital suffering from alcohol-Mrs. Clancy was a writer under the name of "Mary Smiley," for a religious paper, and her husband is a well-known newspaper man, who was last employed years old, was removed to the Presby-

Four years ago Mr. and Mrs. Clancy moved into the Seventy-seventh street house, occupying a flat on the third floor. They seemed to be a loving tenants in the house knew little of them. They never tried to make friends. The only one in the house who knew anywho lives in the flat on the same floor, The pair used to talk a great deal about papers for which they wrote. Even Mrs. Kuppelfnan did not know

Story in London That He Was Falsely Reported So.

And That He Is Being Smuggled
Away from Would-Be Assassins.

Rain and Gloom for the Long March to McKeesport To-Day.

Associated Press 1
LONDON, April 7.—The Admiralty and HorseGuard Gazette says that a report is current that Major Le Caron, the British Government spy, who was so prominently connected with the prose-prominently connected with the prose-prominents of rough roud, with a short stop at Edizabeth for lunch, was the cause of the ca on the New York Times.

prominently connected with the prose-cution of the late Charles Stewart Par-nell, and who was announced to have died recently in this city, is not dead. The Gazette adds that rumor has it that Le Caron is now en route to one of the most distant colories under Government of the Commonweat. Footsore and